

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE EIGHTEENTH JUDICIAL CIRCUIT,
IN AND FOR BREVARD COUNTY, FLORIDA

Case No.: 05-2019-DR-035771
Division: FAMILY

LETESIA ACHIENG,
Petitioner,
and

WILFRED NELSON, JR.,
Respondent

FINAL JUDGMENT OF DISSOLUTION OF MARRIAGE

THIS CAUSE came to be heard for upon the Petition for Dissolution of Marriage filed by the Petitioner/Wife, LETESIA ACHIENG (“Wife”) on July 1, 2019, to dissolve her marriage to Respondent/Husband, WILDRED NELSON, JR. (“Husband”). After reviewing the Court file, the Court Finds as follows:

1. The Court has jurisdiction over the subject matter and the parties.
2. At least one party has been a resident of the State of Florida for more than six (6) months immediately before filing the Petition for Dissolution of Marriage.
3. The marriage between the parties is irretrievably broken. Therefore, the Court finds the marriage between the parties is dissolved, and the parties shall be restored to the status of being single.
4. The minor child common to both parties is: A.S.N. born April 2015.
5. The Wife is not currently pregnant, and no children were adopted into the marriage.
6. The parties wish to settle between themselves their respective rights and duties and obligations including equitable distribution of marital assets and liabilities, alimony, attorney’s fees, and tax deductions, and so have entered into a written Marital Settlement

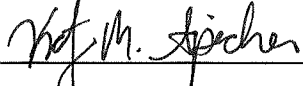

Agreement (“MSA”) e-filed on or about June 21, 2023, that resolves all issues between the parties.

7. The Court finds the MSA to be fair and reasonable.
8. In the MSA, the parties have also included their Parenting Plan resolving all issues relating to the minor child including parental responsibility, timesharing schedule, any child support obligations, uncovered medical expenses and reimbursements.
9. The parties have entered into the MSA, which includes their Parenting Plan, freely and voluntarily after having an opportunity to consult with counsel. The Court finds that the MSA, the Parenting Plan along with the Time-Sharing Schedule contained therein, and the Child Support Guidelines contained therein, intend to govern the relationship between the parties relating to the decisions to be made regarding the minor child.
10. The Court finds the Parenting Plan to be in the best interests of the minor child.
11. The Court finds that this Court has continuing jurisdiction over the minor child pursuant to the applicable Florida Statutes and Uniform Child Custody Jurisdiction and Enforcement Act.
12. The Court finds that Florida is the home state and the state of habitual residence of the minor child. Accordingly, Florida is the sole jurisdictional state to determine child custody, parental responsibility, time-sharing, rights of custody, and rights of access concerning the minor child under the Parental Kidnapping Prevention Act (PKPA), under the International Child Abduction Remedies Act (ICARA), and under the Convention of the Civil Aspects of International Child Abduction enacted at The Hague on October 25, 1980.

IT IS, therefore, ORDERED and ADJUDGED as follows:

- A. The parties are awarded a Final Judgment for Dissolution of Marriage, and the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the Wife, LETESIA ACHIENG, and the Husband, WILFRED NELSON, JR., are hereby dissolved.
- B. The Marital Settlement Agreement and the Parenting Plan included therein are approved, ratified and incorporated in their entirety by reference in this Final Judgment and same shall not be merged but shall survive the Final Judgment and bind the parties for all time.
- C. The parties are directed to comply with the terms set forth in the Marital Settlement Agreement as though same were set forth in this Final Judgment. The child-related provisions of the Marital Settlement Agreement are in the best interests of the parties' minor child.
- D. Each party shall:
- a. Provide to the other party any necessary information or to execute and/or deliver any instrument or document necessary to transfer title or interest in property consistent with this Final Judgment or the Marital Settlement Agreement; and
  - b. Timely perform such other acts as reasonably necessary or that may be reasonably requested by the other party to effectuate the provisions of this Final Judgment or the Marital Settlement Agreement.
- E. The Court expressly retains jurisdiction over the parties hereto and the subject matter hereof to enter such further orders to enforce the terms of the Final Judgment and the terms of the Marital Settlement Agreement entered into by the parties herein.

DONE AND ORDERED, this 23rd of August, 2023, in Brevard County, Florida.
