- 2.1 The parties have entered into the Agreed Final Parenting Plan (hereinafter “Parenting Plan”) that is filed under separately with the Court and which is incorporated herein by reference and made a part of this Agreement for all purposes. The parties agree that this Parenting Plan is in the best interests of the parties’ minor children and represents the parties’ agreement regarding their responsibilities for the daily tasks associated with the upbringing of the parties’ minor children; this includes but is not limited to decision-making, timesharing, transportation, travel, communication, and extra-curricular activities.

ARTICLE III
CHILD SUPPORT AND INSURANCE

- 3.1 Tax Credits/Exemptions. Wife shall be permitted to claim all available dependency deductions/tax credits for the youngest minor child in all tax years for as long as any deductions/credits are available. Husband shall be permitted to claim all available dependency deduction/tax credits for the oldest minor child in all tax years for as long as any deductions/credits are available. The parties will cooperate in executing any necessary documents to effectuate the tax exemptions and deductions as set forth herein.

Once the oldest minor child can no longer be claimed as a dependent, the parents agree to alternate the dependency exemption for the younger minor child with the Mother claiming their youngest minor child in the first year after their eldest is no longer a dependent and the Father claiming their youngest minor child in the second year and the parents shall continue to rotate until their youngest minor child can no longer be declared as a dependent.

- 3.2 Medical Insurance. The monthly health insurance for the minor children is currently being provided by Wife. The cost of said insurance policy is included in the Child Support Guidelines. If the comparable replacement health insurance policy for the children is more expensive than the previous policy, the Wife shall be solely responsible for the first $269.00 as reflected on the Child Support Guidelines and the parties shall then split the amount over $269.00 of the monthly premiums based on their respective pro rata share as outlined in the applicable Child Support Guidelines Worksheet in effect at that time. The Husband shall reimburse Wife for his portion on the first of every month; this reimbursement shall be considered child support for enforcement purposes.

3.3 Out of Pocket Medical Expenses. The parents shall split the emergency and routine medical and dental expenses of the children which are not covered by insurance in accordance with the Child Support Guidelines in effect at that time. The parties shall also split the children’s non-emergency and non-routine reasonable and necessary uncovered medical expenses, so long as same are agreed upon in writing via Our Family Wizard or subject to Section D Paragraph 1(a) of the Parenting Plan, based on their respective pro rata share as outlined in the applicable Child Support Guidelines Worksheet in effect at that time.

The Husband shall pay his share of out of pocket medical expenses, if paid in advance by the Wife, within fifteen (15) days after receipt of a written demand from the Wife via Our Family Wizard, which shall include a copy of the billing statement/invoice, and proof of payment. The Wife shall pay her share of out of pocket medical expenses if paid in advance by Husband, within fifteen (15) days after receipt of a written demand via Our Family Wizard from the Husband, which shall include a copy of the billing statement/invoice and proof of payment. Any demand for reimbursement shall be stale if the paying party fails to make a proper demand for reimbursement within thirty (30) days of making payment requiring reimbursement.

- (a) Consent to any and all of the minor children’s health and mental health providers must be obtained in accordance with the parties’ Shared Parental Responsibility, as outlined in Section D, Paragraph 1 of the parties’ Parenting Plan prior to any treatment on behalf of the minor children. Consent shall not be unreasonably withheld.
- (b) In the event either party no longer consents to treatment by a particular provider, that parent shall notify the other parent in writing via Our Family Wizard and work cooperatively to obtain an alternative in the child’s best interest. Until such time an alternative is agreed upon or determined by the Court, the child shall continue to see the previous provider to ensure no lapses in the child’s treatment.
- (c) In the event the parties cannot agree upon a provider, either party may file a motion with Court to seek an adjudication of such a provider.

3.4 Childcare and Camp Expenses. The cost of agreed upon daycare, before care, and aftercare for the minor children shall be split based on their respective pro rata share as outlined in the applicable Child Support Guidelines Worksheet in effect at that time. Each party shall pay his or her share of said expenses directly to the childcare provider prior to or at the time the expense becomes due. However, in the event an expense is paid in advance by the Mother, the Father shall pay his share of said expenses within fifteen (15)

Any demand for reimbursement shall be stale if the paying party fails to make a proper demand for reimbursement within thirty (30) days of making payment requiring reimbursement.

- a. Camps. The cost of agreed upon camps for the minor children shall be split based on their respective pro rata share as outlined in the applicable Child Support Guidelines Worksheet in effect at that time. Each party shall pay his or her share of said expenses directly to the camp provider prior to or at the time the expense becomes due. However, in the event an expense is paid in advance by the Mother, the Father shall pay his share of said expenses within fifteen (15) days after receipt of a written demand from the Mother via Our Family Wizard, which shall include a copy of the billing statement/invoice, and proof of payment for the expense. In the event an expense is paid in advance by the Father, the Mother shall pay her share of said expenses within fifteen (15) days after receipt of a written demand from the Father via Our Family Wizard, which shall include a copy of the billing statement/invoice, and proof of payment for the expense. Any demand for reimbursement shall be stale if the paying party fails to make a proper demand for reimbursement within thirty (30) days of making payment requiring reimbursement.
 - i. Prior to enrolling either of the minor children in camp, the party seeking to enroll the child(ren) must first seek the consent of the other party via Our Family Wizard. Consent shall not be unreasonably withheld.
 - ii. In the event the other party does not consent or agree to enroll the child(ren) in a camp, the party seeking to enroll the child(ren) may do so at his or her own expense. However, the camp shall not impair or impede on the non-consenting party's timesharing with the children.
 - iii. Summer 2024. For Summer 2024, the parties agree that the oldest child, C.G., shall attend Village of Wellington summer camp and that the youngest child, O.G. shall attend summer camp at his daycare, Prodigy at Wellington.
- b. The cost of any additional childcare (i.e. babysitters, and nannies) required by either party shall be the sole responsibility of the parent requiring said childcare during his or her timesharing unless otherwise agreed to by the parties in writing.

Therefore, if any claim, action, or proceeding is hereafter initiated seeking to hold the other party liable on account of such debts or obligations, the offending party will, at his or her sole expense, defend the other party against any such claim, action or proceeding, whether or not well-founded. Further, the offending party shall: (1) hold the other harmless from all costs and liability arising in connection with or resulting from said debts or obligations; and (2) indemnify the other party against all loss, of every kind and nature whatsoever, arising in connection with or resulting from said debts or obligations, including but not limited to, any and all attorney’s fees and costs incurred by the non-offending party should he or she have to defend himself or herself or seek enforcement of this provision against the offending party.

ARTICLE V
ALIMONY

- 5.1 Bridge-The-Gap Alimony: As and for bridge-the-gap alimony, Wife shall pay Husband One Thousand Five Hundred Dollars and xx/100 ($1,500.00) per month to Husband with the first payment due on April 1, 2024 and continuing on the first day of each month for a total of 24 payments.
- 5.2 Wife’s alimony obligation hereunder shall terminate upon the conclusion of the twenty-four monthly payments, upon the death of either party, upon the remarriage of Husband or upon finding of Husband to be living in a supportive relationship. With the exception of the foregoing, the amount and duration of Wife’s alimony obligation shall be non-modifiable, no matter the circumstance.
- 5.3 Alimony shall be paid directly by Wife to Husband by check, Zelle, or direct deposit.

ARTICLE VI
MUTUAL RELEASES

- 6.1 General Release. Except as otherwise set forth in this Agreement, each party (for himself and herself, and his heirs or her heirs, legal representatives, executors, administrators and assigns) hereby irrevocably releases, remises, relinquishes and forever discharges, the other from all causes of action, claims, rights, or demands whatsoever, in law or in equity, which either of the parties had, or now have, against the other. Each party hereby irrevocably releases and relinquishes all claims, rights and interests which that party may now have in any property real, personal or mixed of the other party, whenever and however such property may have been acquired by the said party, and each party represents that all the said property, real, personal or mixed, owned by either of the parties at the time of their marriage, or subsequently acquired, separately or together, and owned by the parties or either of them at the time of their separation has heretofore been equitably distributed and apportioned between them and each party hereby ratifies and affirms that distribution.

Husband

Wife

- 6.2 Marital Claims. Except as provided in this Agreement, each party releases the other from all claims and demands of every sort to the same extent as if the parties had never been married, particularly including, but not limited to:
- a. All forms of alimony, including periodic alimony, lump sum alimony, any other alimony or support, special equities, equitable distribution and division of property rights.
 - b. To elect to take against any Will or Codicil of the other party now in force. This shall not apply to any Wills or Codicils executed after the date of this Agreement;
 - c. To share in the other party's estate and to exercise any right of elective share he or she may have; and
 - d. To act as Personal Representative or Administrator of the other party's estate except only as provided by a Will or Codicil executed after the date of this Agreement.

The estate of either shall belong to the person or persons who would have become entitled thereto were the parties unmarried. Both parties further agree that they will permit any Will of the other to be probated and that in the event that either shall die intestate, both parties agree to allow the administration of the other's estate to be taken out by persons who would have been entitled thereto as though the parties hereto were now unmarried. Each party hereto further waives any and all rights to the other party's estate, including but without limitation, a right of family allowance.

ARTICLE X
ATTORNEY FEES

Wife shall pay $5,000 by check made payable to the Law Offices of Lindsay B. Haber, P.A., delivered to 4755 Technology Way, Suite 108, Boca Raton, Florida 33431 by March 31, 2024. Additionally, Wife shall pay $15,000 as and for Husband's attorney's fees directly to the Law Offices of Lindsay B. Haber, P.A. out of Wife's share of the Net Sales Proceeds at closing on the sale of the Marital Residence.

Except as otherwise stated herein, each party shall be solely responsible for their own attorney's fees, suit money and costs incurred in the pending dissolution of marriage action as long as the only future legal issues that remain are finalizing the parties' divorce through an uncontested final hearing that incorporates the terms of this Agreement.

In the event future litigation is necessary to enforce or interpret this Agreement, the non-prevailing party shall pay the prevailing party's reasonable attorney's fees and costs incurred in enforcing this Agreement, including attorney's fees and costs for any litigation over the entitlement or amount of attorney's fees and costs pursuant to this section of the Agreement. For purposes of enforcing this provision, the Court may determine which party is "the prevailing party" on an issue by issue basis.

ARTICLE XI
TAX ADVICE

The parties hereby acknowledge and agree that each has had the opportunity to retain his/her own accountants, certified public accountants, tax advisor or tax attorney with reference to the tax implications of this Agreement. Further, both parties hereby acknowledge that neither has relied upon the tax advice that may or may not have been given by their respective attorneys who have represented them in negotiating this Agreement and their dissolution of marriage proceedings. Further, both parties hereby acknowledge that each has been advised by their respective attorney to seek his or her own independent tax advice by retaining an accountant, certified public accountant, tax attorney, or tax advisor with reference to the tax implications of this Agreement. Further, the parties acknowledge and agree that their signatures to this Agreement serve as their acknowledgment that they have read this particular paragraph and have had the opportunity to seek independent tax advice.

ARTICLE XII
MODIFICATION AND WAIVER

The parties hereby agree that modification or waiver of any provisions of this Agreement shall be effective only if made in writing and executed with the same formality as this Agreement. Failure of either party to insist upon strict performance of any of the provisions of this Agreement shall not be construed as a waiver of any subsequent default of the same or similar nature.

ARTICLE XIII
AGREEMENT BINDING ON SUCCESSORS

Except as otherwise noted herein, each and every covenant, promise and agreement herein shall inure to the benefit and shall be binding upon the heirs, legatees devisees, assignees, administrators, personal representatives, executors, and successors in interest of the parties hereto.

ARTICLE XIV
GOVERNING LAW

This Agreement shall be construed and interpreted under and in accordance with the laws of the State of Florida.

ARTICLE XV
ARTICLE AND PARAGRAPH HEADINGS

The titles of the various articles and paragraphs of this Agreement are supplied for convenience only and are not intended to add or to detract from this Agreement nor are they to be used to construe or interpret this Agreement.

In the event any provision of this Agreement should be held to be contrary to, or in doubt under, the law of any country, state or other jurisdiction, such illegality or invalidity shall not affect in any way any other provision hereof, all of which shall continue, nevertheless, in full force and effect in any country, state or jurisdiction in which such provision is legal and valid.

ARTICLE XVI
RECONCILIATION

It is the intention of the parties that this Agreement remain in full force and effect, to the extent permitted by law, notwithstanding either: (a) any reconciliation between the parties and resumption of their marriage; or (b) dissolution of the marriage and subsequent remarriage of the parties, and each party waives any defense of reconciliation in the event of any future action to enforce this Agreement. The parties intend that any executory provisions of this Agreement that remain at the time of reconciliation shall not be affected or abrogated by reconciliation and that those provisions shall survive and be binding upon the parties nevertheless.

ARTICLE XVII
SUBSEQUENT DISSOLUTION OF MARRIAGE & EXECUTION

Nothing contained in this Agreement shall be construed to prevent either party from obtaining a dissolution of marriage in any Court of competent jurisdiction.

In any action for dissolution of marriage, neither of the parties, provided that neither is in default under this Agreement, shall make claim for alimony, either temporary or permanent, or for attorney's fees, or for other relief inconsistent with the terms of this Agreement.

Husband

Wife

This Agreement shall be offered in evidence by either party in any action for dissolution of marriage, and if acceptable to the Court, shall be referred to and approved by the Court. However, notwithstanding incorporation in any Final Judgment dissolving the marriage of the parties, this Agreement shall not be merged in the Final Judgment dissolving the parties' marriage. This Agreement shall survive the Final Judgment and shall be binding on the parties as a contract.

ARTICLE XVIII
SEPARATE COUNTERPARTS

This Agreement may be simultaneously executed in any number of counterparts, including by facsimile signature(s) or emailed signatures, and all of each which when so executed and delivered shall constitute but one and the same instrument, and each of such counterparts shall for all purposes be deemed to be an original. The effective date of this Agreement shall be the date of the last signature of the parties.

ARTICLE XIX
WIFE'S ACKNOWLEDGMENT

By signing this Agreement, Wife acknowledges that she waives any rights against Jennifer B. Rubin, Esquire and the Bruce Law Firm, P.A. even if she ultimately determines that the law may have entitled her to a better settlement as Wife admits she is entering into this Agreement based on what she is willing to accept and not based on the recommendations of her attorney. Wife acknowledges that Jennifer B. Rubin, Esquire and the Bruce Law Firm, P.A. advised her that what she receives in a settlement pursuant to Florida law could be substantially more than what she is receiving pursuant to this Agreement. Wife also acknowledges by signing this Agreement that she has had the opportunity to have the terms of this waiver reviewed by independent legal counsel.
