

Connie Taylor, Clerk of Superior Court
Cobb County, Georgia

IN THE SUPERIOR COURT OF COBB COUNTY
STATE OF GEORGIA

Kimberly B. Greaves,

Petitioner,

v.

David S. Greaves,

Respondent.

CIVIL ACTION
FILE NO.: 23102273

Final Judgment and Decree of Divorce

1. Upon consideration of this case, upon evidence submitted as provided by law, it is the judgment of the court that a total divorce be granted, that is to say, a divorce a vinculo matrimonii, between the parties to the above stated case upon legal principles.

2. It is considered, ordered, and decreed by the court that the marriage contract heretofore entered into between the parties to this case, from and after this date, be and is set aside and dissolved as fully and effectually as if no such contract had ever been made or entered into.

3. Petitioner and Respondent in the future shall be held and considered as separate and distinct individuals altogether unconnected by any nuptial union or civil contract whatsoever and both shall have the right to remarry.

4. The court awards joint legal custody of the children to the parties and awards physical custody and parenting time as set forth in the parties' Consolidated Permanent Parenting Plan and Child Support Agreement, which is incorporated into this Order.

5. The Court orders the equitable division of property, any award of alimony, and all other terms and provisions as set forth in the parties' Settlement Agreement, which is incorporated into this Order.

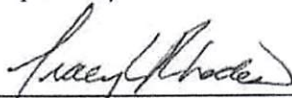

6. The Court orders child support as set forth in the Child Support Addendum attached as Exhibit A and the child support worksheet attached as Exhibit B.

SO ORDERED, this 22 of January, 2024.

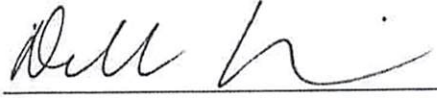

Honorable Judge Robert Leonard
Superior Court of Cobb County

Exhibit A

Child Support Addendum

The parties have agreed to the terms of this Order and this information has been furnished by both parties to meet the requirements of O.C.G.A. § 19-6-15.

Application of Child Support Guidelines

The statutory requirements of O.C.G.A. §19-6-15 have been applied in reaching the amount of child support provided under the Final Order in this action. The specifics are as follows:

1. Gross Income
  - a. Father's gross monthly income is $31,250.00.
  - b. Mother's gross monthly income is $11,372.08.

2. Number of Children: The number of children for whom support is being provided under this order is two (2).

3. The Child Support Worksheet and the following Schedules are attached and made a part of this Addendum:
  - Schedule A
  - Schedule D
  - Schedule E

4. Child Support Amount: Father shall pay to Mother, for the support of the minor child(ren), the sum of $3,250.00 per month, beginning on January 1, 2024.

5. Duration of Child Support: The child support shall continue monthly thereafter until Carson reaches the age of eighteen, dies, marries, or otherwise becomes legally emancipated; provided that if Carson becomes eighteen years old while enrolled in and attending secondary school on a full-time basis, then the child support shall continue for said child until he has graduated from secondary school or reaches the age of twenty years, whichever occurs first.

6. Deviation from Presumptive Amount: Father is subject to a high-income deviation of $1,095.00 per month.

7. Split Parenting - This case does not involve Split Parenting.
8. Health & Dental Insurance for Children
- a. Insurance Available – Health and dental insurance for the children involved in this action is available at a reasonable cost to the Father:
  - b. Father shall maintain the types of insurance indicated above for the benefit of the child(ren) (including the adult children so long as they are eligible to be on his plan) so long as such insurance is available to him through his employer or available at a reasonable cost, for the duration of child support indicated in Section 5 above. If health insurance is not available to Father, then Mother shall provide.
  - c. The parent who maintains the insurance shall provide the other parent with an insurance identification card or such other acceptable proof of insurance coverage and shall cooperate with the other parent in submitting claims under the policy.
  - d. Uninsured Health Care Expenses: Except as otherwise set forth in the parties' Parenting Plan<sup>1</sup>, Mother shall pay 40% and the Father shall pay 60% of all uncovered medical, dental, and orthodontic expenses, including but not limited to co-payments, prescriptions, orthodontia, dental costs, vision care, mental health/therapy costs, etc. The party who incurs a reimbursable expense for one of the children shall provide proof of expense to the other party within thirty days. Upon receipt, the other party shall have 30 days to reimburse the other. If either party fails to provide documentation within this period, then that party waives any further right to claim this amount.
9. Child Care – For so long as Father is employed by an organization that allows for a Dependent Care Savings Account, Father agrees to pay for all childcare expenses up to the statutory limit (currently $5,000). Father and Mother shall divide (40/60) all amounts exceeding that amount up to a maximum of 10 hours per week. The party who incurs a reimbursable expense for one of the children shall provide proof of expense to the other party within thirty days. Upon receipt, the other party shall have 30 days to reimburse the other. If either party fails to provide documentation within this period, then that party waives any further right to claim this amount.

<sup>1</sup> The parties' Parenting Plan provides that for so long as Father is employed by an organization that allows for a Health Savings Account, Father shall pay all out of pocket medical expenses for the children (including the adult children) up to the statutory maximum that is deductible.

10. Education, Sports, Extracurricular - The parties shall jointly cover expenses related to the minor Children's education, sports, and extracurricular activities, with Mother being responsible for 40% of said costs and Father responsible for 60% of said costs, beginning January 1, 2024. This division of expenses only applies to those expenses which are discussed by Mother and Father and agreed upon in advance and in writing (with email correspondence sufficing as written documentation). The party incurring a reimburseable expense shall provide the other party with proof of expense within 30 days. Upon receipt, the other party shall have 30 days to reimburse the other. If either party fails to provide documentation within this period, then that party waives any further right to claim this amount. Education tuition payments shall be paid jointly in the agreed-upon percentages set forth above by each party, in accordance with the payment policies of the school.
11. Parenting Time Amounts - The approximate number of days of parenting time per year according to the visitation order is 80 days for the Father and 285 days for the Mother.
12. Social Security Benefits: The children do not receive Title II Social Security benefits under the account of the parent ordered to pay child support.
13. Modification: This is an initial determination of child support, not a modification action.
14. Continuing Garnishment for Child Support - Whenever, in violation of the terms of the order, there shall have been a failure to make the support payments, so that the amount unpaid is equal to or greater than the amount payable for one month, the payments required to be made may also be collected by the process of continuing garnishment for support.
15. Income Deduction Order: The parties agree that an Income Deduction Order is not immediately necessary.

DEVIATIONS AND SPECIAL CIRCUMSTANCES

Specific and Nonspecific Deviations - High Income and Other Amounts
2(a).	High Income - Combined Adjusted Income of the parents that is greater than $30,000/month will display for the court/jury to consider.	$12,622.08

The amount of any requested deviation must display in the noncustodial parent's column. Only amounts listed in the noncustodial parent's column will affect the final child support calculation. Requested deviation amounts will display as a "positive (+)" number for an upward deviation or as a "negative (-)" number for a downward deviation. The numbers represent the amounts you want the court to consider as requested deviations from the Presumptive Amount of Child Support.

14.	Important Requirement About Deviations - No Deviation is permitted unless all three Findings of Fact questions ((B), (C), and (D)) have been answered for EACH requested deviation	$1,095.00
B. Would the presumptive amount be unjust or inappropriate?
The presumptive amount would be unjust or inappropriate because Father has a high income sufficient to warrant an upward deviation.
C. Would deviation serve the best interests of the children for whom support is being determined?
The deviation will serve the best interests of the children.
D. Would deviation seriously impair the ability of the CUSTODIAL Parent or NONPARENT Custodian to maintain minimally adequate housing, food and clothing for the children being supported by the order and to provide other basic necessities?
The deviation will not impair either parent's ability to provide for the children.
