FINAL JUDGMENT OF DISSOLUTION OF MARRIAGE

THIS CAUSE came before the court upon the Petition for Dissolution of Marriage filed by Petitioner, GABRIEL PADILLA. After reviewing the Court file, the Court finds:

- B. The Petitioner and Respondent, AIMEE PADILLA, were married on June 18, 2004, Orange County, Florida.
- C. There are two (2) minor children born to the parties of the marriage, to wit; Lauren Padilla, born November 17, 2005, female; and Kendall Padilla, born January 1, 2009, female. The Wife is not currently pregnant, and no other children are expected nor have been adopted.
- D. The Petitioner has been a resident of the State of Florida for at least six (6) months before filing the Petition for Dissolution of Marriage.
- E. The marriage between the parties is irretrievably broken.
- F. The Parties entered into a Collaborative Participation Agreement on January 4, 2024, which will not be filed with the Court. Both parties have copies of this Collaborative Participation Agreement. The Collaborative Participation Agreement shall survive the Final Judgment.

G. The parties voluntarily entered into a Collaborative Marital Settlement Agreement on April 22, 2024 and Parenting Plan on April 22, 2024 wherein they resolved all issues relative to the marriage. The terms and conditions of the Parenting Plan are in the children's best interests.

Based upon the above findings, it is therefore ORDERED and ADJUDGED as follows:

1. The Court has jurisdiction of the cause, the parties and the minor children.
2. The bonds of marriage between the parties are hereby dissolved a vinculo matrimonii and the parties are restored to the status of being single.
3. The Collaborative Participation Agreement shall survive this Final Judgment.

5. The Collaborative Marital Settlement Agreement and the Parenting Plan are hereby approved ratified by the Court, are made a part of this Final Judgment by reference, and the parties are ordered to abide by the terms and conditions of the Collaborative Marital Settlement Agreement and Parenting Plan.
6. The parties, as part of the Collaborative Process, have agreed as to the payment of fees to their respective attorneys and the neutral Mental Health Professional and neutral Financial Professional. The fees to the Neutral Mental Health and Financial Professionals have been paid in full. To the extent that either attorney is owed any additional fees in connection with the conclusion of the Collaborative Process, including the entry of Final Judgment in this matter, each party shall be solely responsible for his or her own remaining attorney's fees.

7. Except as to the dissolution of marriage granted in this Judgment, the Court specifically reserves jurisdiction to enforce the provisions of this Judgment and the Collaborative Marital Settlement Agreement and Parenting Plan, in accordance with Florida law. Further, both parties are ordered to take whatever action is reasonable and necessary to conduct themselves in a manner conducive to carry out the intent of the provisions of this Judgment.
