FINAL JUDGMENT AND DECREE OF DIVORCE

Upon consideration of this case, it is the judgment of the Court that a total divorce be granted, that a divorce a vinculo matrimonii, between the parties to the above-stated case upon legal principals, and upon the statutory grounds that, based on the parties' irreconcilable differences, the marriage is irretrievably broken as defined in O.C.G.A. § 19-5-3 (13) and there are no prospects for a reconciliation.

IT IS CONSIDERED, ORDERED AND DECREED that the marriage contract heretofore entered into between the parties to this case, from and after this date, be and is set aside and dissolved as fully and effectually as if no such contract had ever been made or entered into by the parties. Plaintiff and Defendant, formally husband and wife, in the future shall be held and considered as separate and distinct persons altogether unconnected by a nuptial union or civil contract whatsoever, and both shall have the right to remarry.

The parties completed a Separate Maintenance action on February 18, 2022 (Amanda Shilling v. Bradley Shilling, Civil Action File No. 21FM8421, Superior Court of DeKalb County). The Settlement Agreement and Child Support Addendum with worksheet from that Separate Maintenance action, already approved by the Court, shall remain in place and an Order of the Court, and are hereby incorporated into this Final Judgment and Decree as if originally part thereof. They have also been attached as Exhibits “A” and “B.” In this instant divorce case, the parties filed in a new Permanent Parenting Plan on April 30, 2024, and the same is made an Order of the Court and is incorporated into this Final Judgment and Decree as if originally a part thereof. This shall replace the former Permanent Parenting Plan from the parties’ Separate Maintenance action in its entirety. Both parties are ordered to obey all terms of the Settlement Agreement, Child Support Addendum and worksheet, and the new Permanent Parenting Plan.

Each party shall be responsible for his/her own attorney’s fees and expenses of litigation in this divorce case.

SO ORDERED, this 6th day of May, 2024.
