of each month and payments shall begin on February 28, 2023 with the last payment being made on January 31, 2029. The Husband's obligation to pay durational alimony to Wife shall terminate upon the earliest occurrence of the expiration of the term, remarriage of Wife or death of either party. Alimony shall also be modified and/or terminated pursuant to any event allowable under Florida law.

ARTICLE VI PARENTING PLAN

6.1 The parties entered into a Parenting Plan, which is merged into this Agreement and attached hereto as Exhibit "A."

ARTICLE VII CHILD FINANCIAL ISSUES

7.1 Child Support: The Husband until the child turns eighteen (18) years old, or until the child is emancipated and self-supporting, shall pay to the Wife for the support and maintenance of the child of the parties, the sum of $800.00 per month and the sum of $4,000 per quarter. Said monthly payments shall commence on February 15, 2023 and on the 15th of the month thereafter. Said quarterly payments shall commence on May 15, 2023 and on the 15th of every third month thereafter (e.g., August 15th, November 15th, and February 15th). The Wife understands that the Husband's ability to pay the quarterly payments is dependent upon the Husband receiving quarterly bonuses and quarterly stock grants from his current employer, which can be delayed occasionally for a number of reasons out of the Husband's control. In the event the Husband's quarterly bonuses or quarterly stock grants are delayed, such that Husband is unable to make said quarterly payments on the 15th of any given third month per the schedule outlined above, Husband will be permitted to make the quarterly payments at the soonest date thereafter immediately upon receiving his quarterly bonus and/or quarterly stock grant. Payment shall be made directly to Wife. The Husband's child support obligation shall terminate when the parties' child turns 18 or graduates from high school as long as there is a reasonable expectation the child shall graduate high school by 19, whichever occurs later, or for any emancipation event set forth under Florida Statute.

The parties have agreed to deviate from the guidelines Husband is voluntarily agreeing to pay an amount of child support that exceeds the guidelines at this time as he has the ability to do so. Husband's voluntarily agreement to exceed the guidelines shall not be considered for any future supplemental petitions for modification based upon a substantial change of circumstances.

7.3 Termination of Alimony: Upon the termination of Husband's alimony obligation, which is anticipated to be January 31, 2029, Husband's child support obligation shall automatically increase by $500.00 without the need of either party filing a Supplemental Petition. This paragraph does not prohibit either party from filing a Supplemental Petition for any modification issues.

7.4 Child Support Arrears: As of the date of execution of this Agreement, there is no child support arrears due by either party.

7.5 Medical Insurance for Child: The child is currently covered under a health insurance policy provided by Husband's employment. The Husband shall continue to maintain and pay for the child's health insurance through his employment as long as it is available to him. If Husband's employed is terminated and/or coverage for the child's health insurance is no longer available to him, the parties shall make their best efforts to secure a health insurance policy for the child as soon as possible. The parties shall cooperate to find the most financially reasonable coverage available and divide the cost of the child's insurance coverage equally.

7.6 Out of Pocket Medical Expenses: The child's "out-of-pocket" medical expenses, including but not limited to medical, dental, optical, mental health and orthodontic expenses shall be divided with Husband paying 50% of the cost and Wife paying 50% of the cost.

7.7 School Tuition: The child currently attends Royal Palm Academy. The Husband shall be responsible for the yearly tuition of the school. The Husband shall be responsible for purchasing the school uniforms for the year and providing an equal amount of uniforms to Wife each year.

7.8 Tax Exemptions: The Husband is entitled to claim the child dependency exemption for the calendar year 2023 and every subsequent tax year thereafter until the child is no longer eligible to be claimed as a dependent. Wife will not claim the child as a dependent in her income tax return for calendar year 2023 and any subsequent tax year thereafter. The Husband agrees that if he is not able to use the dependency exemption during any year because there would be no financial benefit to the Husband, the Husband will allow the Wife to claim the exemption benefit for that tax year. The parties shall equally divide any stimulus monies or similar payments received if the stimulus payment was for the benefit of having a minor child.

J.C.

7.9 Extracurricular Activities: The parties agree the child may participate in special activities that are mutually agreeable in writing between the parties as follows: The Husband shall pay 50% and Wife shall pay 50% of the cost of any extracurricular activity. Consent to extra-curricular activities shall not be withheld absent good cause.

7.10 Plane ticket to Poland: The Husband agrees that one time per year, he shall pay the reasonable cost of a round trip airline ticket for the child during the minority of the child. As long as Husband still owes an alimony obligation to Wife, he shall pay the reasonable cost of Wife's plane ticket to Poland as well. The Wife is obligated to notify Husband at least 90 days in advance of when she and the child intend to travel to Poland. The parties shall coordinate the booking and payment for tickets.

ARTICLE VIII TAX ISSUES

Federal Income Taxes for Tax Year 2022

8.1 The parties will file a joint income tax return for 2022. The United States is the country of habitual residence of the child. The State of Florida maintains the most significant contacts with the child and is the most appropriate forum for addressing parenting contact and time-sharing.

The State of Florida is the child's home state for the purposes of the Uniform Children Custody Jurisdiction and Enforcement Act.

The Parenting Plan is a child custody determination for the purposes of the Uniform Children Custody Jurisdiction and Enforcement Act, the International Children Abduction Remedies Act, 42 U.S.C. ss. 11601 et esp., the Parental Kidnapping Prevention Act, and the Convention on the Civil Aspects of International Children Abduction enacted at the Hague on October 25, 1980.

IV. PARENTAL RESPONSIBILITY AND DECISION MAKING

- Parental Responsibility: The parties desire that parental responsibility be shared between them. Each of the parties recognizes the deep love, devotion and dedication of the other to the minor child. Each recognizes that the other has a right to and shall fully participate with the other and with the child in all important matters pertaining to the child's health, welfare, education and upbringing. With this in mind, the parties agree that they shall have shared parental responsibility of the minor child and that all decisions regarding the health, medical and dental care, and major decisions regarding welfare and upbringing of the child shall be made on a joint decision-making basis. Either party may consent to mental health treatment for the child.
- Day to Day Decision Making: Each parent shall make decisions regarding day-to-day care and control of the child while he is residing with the parent. Regardless of the allocation of decision making in the parenting plan, either parent may make emergency decisions affecting the health or safety of the child when the child is residing with that parent. Each parent will keep the other informed about both emergency and non-emergency medical issues. If the child is taken to the hospital because of a medical emergency, the other parent will be immediately notified. Information about non-medical emergency issues will be conveyed to the other parent as soon as practicable but no longer than 24 hours following the event. Except in emergencies, both parents shall agree to any medical procedure affecting the child. Both parents shall have the right to attend medical appointments.
- Emergency Decisions, Unilateral Permitted: It is understood that some decisions must be on an emergency-type basis, and in such event, each of the parties acknowledge that they have full confidence in the other's ability to make a unilateral decision for the child's welfare which otherwise would be a joint decision of the parties.

4. Acknowledgement of Respect: Neither party shall disparage the other parent, the other parent's family and/or the other parent's beliefs about religion in the presence of the child.

5. Positive Co-Parenting Relationship: The parents realize that the welfare of the child is of paramount importance and agree to foster and encourage feelings of affection and respect between the child and the other parent. Neither parent will do anything to hamper the development of such affection. Both parents need to contribute to this process and will cooperate to see that the child has a happy, healthy and rewarding childhood. Both parents will make themselves available to discuss any substantive issue relating to the child. It is stated aim of this agreement to develop a mutually rewarding friendship between the parents so as to benefit the child.

6. Entitlement to Participation: Both parties shall be entitled to participate with and attend special activities in which the child is engaged, such as religious activities, school programs, sports events and other extra-curricular activities and programs and important social events in which the child is in or in which they may be engaged or involved. The party who receives notice of such activities shall be responsible of immediately notifying the other party so that the other party may attend or participate in the activity.

7. Extracurricular Activities: Either parent may enroll the child in agreed upon extra-curricular activities. If the parties do not agree on an activity, the child can still participate in said activity but on the requesting parent's own time and expense. The parent with the child shall transport the child to/from all agreed upon extracurricular activities and provide all necessary uniforms and equipment in that parent's possession.

V. INFORMATION SHARING

1. Notification and Access in Event of Illness or Accident: Each party agrees that if either of them has any knowledge of any illness or accident or other circumstances seriously affecting the child's health and general welfare, the Father or Mother, as the case may be, will promptly notify the other of such circumstances and the party who is notified shall have immediate access to the child notwithstanding where the child may be. Wherever the child is, each of the parties shall be informed of where they can have telephonic communication with the child and shall have the right to communicate.

2. Entitlement to Complete Information: Each parent shall be entitled to complete and detailed information from all pediatricians, physicians, dentists, consultants, specialists or other professionals attending the minor child for any reason whatsoever and to be furnished with copies of any reports given to one or the other parent. Each shall be entitled to complete and detailed information from all teachers, schools, summer camps or other institutions which the child may attend or become associated in any way. Each of the parents should be furnished with copies of all reports given to the other.

3. Exchanging Contact Information: Each parent has a continuing responsibility to provide a residential, mailing or contact address and contact telephone number to the other parent. Each parent shall notify the other parent in writing within 24 hours of any changes.

4. Emergency Contact: Both parents shall be listed as emergency contacts for the child.

VI. SCHEDULING

1. Schedule Changes: A parent making a request for a schedule change will make the request as soon as possible, but in any event no less than one week before the change is to occur. A parent requesting a change of schedule shall be responsible for any additional child care or transportation costs caused by the change.

2. International and Out-of-State Travel: International and Out-of-State Travel: Either parent may travel with the child during his/her parenting time. For travel within the United States, the parent traveling with the child shall give the other parent at least 5 days written notice before traveling out of state unless there is an emergency and shall provide the other parent with a detailed itinerary, including locations and telephone numbers where the child and parent can be reached at least 2 days before travelling.

For international travel, the parent traveling with the child shall give the other parent at least 30 days written notice before traveling and shall provide the other parent with a detailed itinerary, including locations and telephone numbers where the child and parent can be reached at least 10 days before traveling. Traveling shall only be permitted to countries that are signatory members of the Hague Convention on Civil Aspects of International Child Abduction.

Unless otherwise agreed to by the parties in writing, the child may not be left at a travel destination without a parent. For instance, if the child travels out of state with a parent, the child may not be left with anyone while the parent returns to Florida. The child must leave the travel destination when the parent leaves the travel destination.
