FINAL JUDGMENT OF DISSOLUTION OF MARRIAGE

THIS CAUSE having come for Entry of a Final Judgment on the Wife's Petition for Dissolution of Marriage, and upon review of the Court file, the Court makes the following findings:

A. Jurisdiction. The Court has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of these proceedings.

B. Residency. The Petitioner has been a resident of the State of Florida for more than six (6) months immediately preceding the filing of the Petition for Dissolution of Marriage.

C. Date and Place of Marriage. The parties were married to each other on September 2, 1995, in Orlando, FL.

D. Marriage. The bonds of marriage between the parties are irretrievably broken.

E. Children of the Marriage. There are no minor children of the marriage. The Petitioner/Wife is not currently pregnant, and no other children are contemplated.

F. Marital Settlement Agreement. The parties entered into a Marital Settlement Agreement, which was filed with the Court on July 17, 2023. The Court has reviewed the Marital Settlement Agreement and finds it was freely and voluntarily executed by the parties, and they are reasonable and appropriate, and should be incorporated by reference in this Final Judgment and the parties ordered to comply with the terms thereof.

G. Non-Military Service. Neither party is on active duty in the United States military nor has either party been a member of the military service of the United States within thirty (30) days prior to the filing of the Petition for Dissolution of Marriage. Therefore, neither party is entitled to the protections of the Service Members Civil Relief Act of 2003. Furthermore, neither party is mentally incompetent.

ORDERED AND ADJUDGED as follows:

1. Jurisdiction. The Court has jurisdiction of the parties and the subject matter of this action.

2. Dissolution of Marriage. The Court having found the bonds of marriage between the parties, LORI NICHOLASON LEAN and WILLIAM RICHARD LEAN, III are irretrievably broken, the bonds of marriage are hereby dissolved and the parties are restored to the status of being single.

3. Marital Settlement Agreement. The parties are ordered to comply with the terms of the Marital Settlement Agreement, which was filed with the Court on July 17, 2023, and which are hereby adopted, ratified, approved and incorporated by reference herein, and which include, but are not limited to the following terms:

a. Equitable Distribution of Other Assets. The parties shall follow the division of all personal property and other assets as described in the Marital Settlement Agreement.

b. Husband's Employee Pre-Tax Account. The ORDERS that the Wife shall receive $50,000.00 (FIFTY-THOUSAND-DOLLARS-AND-ZERO-CENTS) from the Husband's Employee Pre-Tax Account (with an approximate balance of $125,687.43 as of December 30, 2021) as her share of the marital assets which is not to be adjusted for any gains or losses; which shall be effective on the date the account administrator receives a Qualified Domestic Relations Order or like order and segregates the account. The Wife shall have her share transferred into a qualified retirement plan of her choosing so not to incur any tax penalties. The Court RESERVES jurisdiction to enter a Qualified Domestic Relations Order, or other like order, in order to effectuate the transfer of said funds to the Wife as provided herein. The Wife has waived any and all interest in the remainder of the Husband's Employee Pre-Tax Account.

4. Reservation of Jurisdiction. This Court specifically retains jurisdiction over the parties, and for the enforcement of the Marital Settlement Agreement, which was filed with the Court on July 17, 2023, and this Final Judgment of Dissolution of Marriage, and reserves jurisdiction to enter any further Orders as may be equitable, appropriate and just. Both parties are directed to take whatever action is reasonable and necessary to carry out the intent and purpose of this judgment.
